WELCOME AND HAPPY SABBATH! We are very thankful for our school teachers, Laurie Hosey and Ben Pflugrad. Thank you students for your participation in our church service this morning.

Our guest speaker this morning is Nitza Salazar, Children's Ministries Coordinator for the Idaho Conference. Nitza Salazar is passionate about children's evangelism! She has been working in Children's Ministries since she can remember. She loves preaching and leading VBS with her daughter Jordyn. Her mission is to motivate, train, and support leaders to guide as many children this year to say YES to JESUS!

Please plan to stay for the fellowship meal following the worship service.

I Have No Hands But Yours

When vandals broke the hands off a statue of Jesus outside a church in San Diego, the pastor placed a sign at the base of the statue which said, "I have no hands but yours." The hands were never replaced, so to this day the statue presents Jesus as having no hands. The message of the original, handwritten sign has been incorporated into the statue itself. Jesus is seen to proclaim, "I have no hands but yours."

Every believer is called to be the hands of Jesus. Paul wrote in 1 Corinthians 3:9, "For we are labourers together with God." For this reason, we must share Jesus with others, to lift Him up and tell the world of a risen Savior who is soon to return to this world.

Poet Annie Johnson Flint wrote:

"Christ has no hands, but our hands, to do His work today;
He has no feet but our feet, to lead men in his way;
He has no tongue but our tongues, to tell men how He died;
He has no help but our help, to bring them to His side."

We live in urgent, vital times. Jesus still says, "I have no hands but yours."
